How Live Guest Portrait Drawing Works at Your Wedding Guide

Before The Day

Ahead of your wedding,
we'll have a relaxed conversation either in person or online to talk through your plans, the flow of the day, and how live portrait drawing can sit seamlessly within it.
We'll cover timings, guest numbers, and any personal touches you'd like to include, ensuring the experience feels natural and thoughtfully considered.

During The Celebration

I arrive at your venue in advance to set up a discreet portrait station, ready before guests arrive.

Throughout the event, guests are invited to have their portraits drawn, either from a short sitting or from a reference photograph taken on the day.

Working in expressive charcoal on fine paper, I create free-flowing portraits live as your celebration unfolds.

Guests often enjoy watching the drawings take shape, and each finished portrait becomes a personal keepsake they can take home with them.

After The Event

If time doesn't allow for every portrait to be completed during the event, any remaining drawings can be finished afterward using reference photographs. These will be carefully completed in the studio and sent to you within two weeks, ensuring no one misses out.

Terms & Conditions – Live Wedding & Event Portrait Services

Tom Searles Fine Art

These Terms & Conditions apply to all bookings for live portrait drawing services provided by Tom Searles Fine Art ("the Artist") at weddings and events. By confirming a booking, the Client agrees to the following terms.

1. Booking & Confirmation

A booking is only confirmed once availability has been agreed and the required booking fee has been paid. The booking fee secures the event date and is non-refundable. The remaining balance must be paid by the agreed date prior to the event.

2. Services Provided

The Artist will provide live portrait drawings during the agreed hours at the event location. Portraits may be created from short live sittings and/or reference photographs taken during the event. A specific number of portraits is not guaranteed.

3. Travel & Setup

Complimentary travel is included for venues within a two-hour journey radius. Travel beyond this may incur an additional charge. A suitable working space and lighting must be provided.

4. Photography & Content Usage

The Artist may take photographs or short video clips during the event for portfolio, website, social media, and promotional purposes. Clients may opt out by notifying the Artist in writing before the event.

5. Artistic Style & Expectations

Portraits are created in the Artist's recognisable style and are expressive rather than photographic likenesses. Minor imperfections are part of live artwork.

6. Additional Portraits

Additional portraits created after the event may be commissioned separately and are subject to additional fees.

7. Client Responsibilities

The Client is responsible for venue permissions and guest awareness regarding live portrait drawing and incidental photography.

8. Cancellation & Changes

Booking fees are non-refundable. In the unlikely event the Artist cannot attend, all fees paid will be refunded or a replacement arranged where possible.

9. Liability

The Artist accepts no liability for loss or damage caused by third parties during the event.

10. Governing Law

These Terms & Conditions are governed by English law.
